Re: United States v. Corey Gilmore, 24 Cr. 127 (LJL)
United States v. Hector Colon, 24 Cr. 367 (LJL)

SO ORDERED.

LEWIS J. LIMAN
United States District Judge

Dear Judge Liman:

The Government respectfully writes to request that the Court adjourn one of the two above-captioned trials, which are both currently scheduled to begin on November 18, 2024. The Government understands from speaking with defense counsel that both cases are expected to proceed to trial. Counsel for both defendants are willing to proceed as scheduled on November 18, or for one of the trials to be adjourned to avoid the conflict.<sup>1</sup> Given the possibility that the Government may call some of the same witnesses to testify at both trials, and because a trial for a third NYCHA defendant is also scheduled to begin on November 18 (United States v. Villanueva, 24 Cr. 366 (PAE)), the Government respectfully requests an adjournment of one of the two above-captioned trials to a date in mid-December 2024 or later, but takes no position on which trial should be adjourned.<sup>2</sup>

Very truly yours,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney

<sup>1</sup> Counsel for Gilmore noted that he is amenable to an adjournment so he can continue to review discovery, but can also proceed on November 18 if the Court does not adjourn the trial.

<sup>2</sup> Counsel for Colon has an approximately two-week trial beginning January 6, 2025. Counsel for Gilmore does not currently have any trials scheduled in the next few months.
